ALLIES STILL AT IT.

Inner City of Peking Being Vigorously Bombardeed.

CHINESE OFFICIALS THERE.

Empress and Suite Have Not Deserted the Capital of the Empire.

REMEY AND CHAFFEE COMMUNICATE.

Intelligence of Renewed Fighting Starts Office Washington Entry Into the Walled City. Latest Phase of the Chinese Situation.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The navy department has received the following cablegram from Admiral Remey, dated Taku, Aug. 18: "Telegraphic line to Peking interrupted. Information from Japanese sources states that the empress dowager was detained by Prince Yungede in the inner city, which is being bombarded by the allies. Chaffee reports that he entered the legation grounds on the evening of the 14th. Eight were wounded during the day's fighting. Otherwise all well."

Washington, Aug. 20.—From General Chaffee the war department received official confirmation of the fall of Peking and the rescue of the besieged legationaries. The dispatch of the American commander was not long and contained few details. His last communication to the government was dated Aug. 11, at Matow, almost 39 miles from Peking. The explanation of his silence is suggested in advices received by the navy department from Admiral Remey, who, telegraphing from Taku on the 18th, says the telegraph line between that point and Peking is interrupted.

The fact that the Fourteenth infantry and Riley's battery entered the city, as shown by General Chaffee's dispatch indicates that the Ninth Infantry and the marines, who were so conspicuously gallant throughout the advance upon the capital, did not participate in the engagement which resulted directly in the rescue of the besieged legationaries. It is pointed out as likely that General Chaffee, acting in consonance with the other commanders, divided his force, leaving the Ninth Infantry and the marines without the walls of the city to act as a rear guard to prevent the escape of Chinese troops by other gates than those through which the allies entered, or for some other excellent reason. Only two battalions of the Fourteenth regiment are with General Chaffee. They comprise about 800 men. This would indicate that only about one-third of General Chaffee's force actually had entered the city at the time he sent his dispatch. The fact that only eight of the American force was wounded, none being killed, is regarded as notably fortunate.

The startling feature of Remey's dispatch is that fighting within the city of Peking was continuing. The inner, or, as it is popularly known, the Forbidden City, evidently had not been taken. It is surrounded by a massive wall of solid masonry more than 20 feet high, and it is not regarded as surprising that the Chinese should make their final stand within its shadows. Prior to the receipt of the dispatch it was accepted generally as a fact that the dowager empress, in company with the emperor and a large suite, had left Peking. While nothing is said in Admiral Remey's advices as to the whereabouts of the emperor, it is deemed scarcely probable that he left the city without the empress dowager. Some doubt of the accuracy of the information received by Admiral Remey is expressed, particularly as the Chinese minister, Mr. Wu, is very positive that the emperor, empress dowager and the entire Chinese court left Peking before the arrival at the gates of the allies.

While no surprise was evinced at the statement of Admiral Remey that the inner city was being bombarded, some concern was expressed lest the final stand of the Chinese troops within what they regard as most sacred precincts should prove a very serious affair. Peking comprises possibly ten cities in one. In extent of area it is about the size of New York city. The four segments of it are the Chinese city, the Tartar city, the Imperial city and the Forbidden city. The last is the "inner city" mentioned in Admiral Remey's dispatch, and is the residence of the emperor and the site of the imperial court. Nobody is allowed within its massive walls, except by special permission of the emperor or empress dowager.

The presumption here is that the next move will be an agreement for an armistice. This may be undertaken by the commanders of the Chinese army and those of the allies on the spot where the fighting appears still to be in progress. This accomplished, the question of the withdrawal of the foreign armies, the payment of indemnities and many other problems may be left to the commissions duly appointed to adjudicate them. Li Hung Chang has already been appointed a plenipotentiary by his government to negotiate terms of peace, and in this capacity he made an ineffectual attempt to stop the progress of the allies in their march on Peking. There are 11 nations which have suffered as a result of the Chinese disturbances. All expect a settlement of the damages which have resulted in the Boxer outbreaks, the murder of missionaries and the destruction of legation property. It can be stated authoritatively that up to this time there have been no exchanges between the United States and the other powers regarding the steps to be taken in the future to bring China to terms for the losses that have been incurred.

Taking of Peking.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The Japanese minister received this dispatch from the Japanese foreign office at Tokyo: "The foreign forces attacked on the eastern side of Peking Wednesday morning. The enemy obstinately resisted. In the evening the Japanese blew up the Chiao Yang gate and the Tung Chia gate of the Tartar city and succeeded in entering. In the meantime other foreign forces entered the Chinese city by the Tung Pleu gate. Detachments were sent immediately to the legations and opened communications. The ministers and staffs were found safe. The Japanese loss was over 100, including three officers. The Chinese loss computed at about 400."

Chaffee's Dispatch.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The war department has received the following dispatch from General Chaffee, dated Peking, Aug. 15: "We entered legation grounds at 5 o'clock last night with Fourteenth and Light battery. Eight wounded during day's fighting. Otherwise all well." War department officials think the date Peking, Aug. 15, is an error in transmission. They believe it should be Aug. 16, as all previous reports indicated that Peking was captured on the 15th.

Indiana Reaches Taku.

Washington, Aug. 20.—A cablegram received at the war department from Brigadier General Barry of General Chace's staff, announces the arrival of the Indiana at Taku August 16 with all well. The Indiana will go to the front. The Indiana carried a battalion of the 15th Infantry which transhipped from the Sumner at Nagasaki.

Americans Will No Land.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The cruiser New Orleans has arrived at Wu Sung, the port of Shanghai. She has on board 300 men including 40 marines. It is understood that the British forces landed and will be followed by French and German landing parties. It is not expected that the Americans will land a party.

Russian Atrocities.

New York, Aug. 20.—Russian atrocities in New Chwang have excited the Chinese, says a special from New Chwang under date of August 11. It was reported that 15,000 Chinese were determined to recapture the Chinese city at any cost and the Russians sent a torpedo boat to Port Arthur for reinforcements.

Fighting Continues.

Rome, Aug. 20.—A dispatch from Taku, via Chefu, Aug. 18, says: "Fighting continues in the streets of Peking, and the allies have bombarded the point that is still resisting. Prince Yung prevented the departure of the empress dowager."

Killed His Father.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 20.—James M. Burnham, publisher of The Wymoran at Wymora, Neb., shot and killed his father, Captain Collins A. Burnham, at their home. A coroner's jury immediately exonerated the son. Both father and son were prominent political workers in the county in which they reside. The killing was in self-defense. The son gave himself up to the officers.

Eufala, I. T., Aug. 20.—Major A. B. Martinlyere, 75, who won his title in the Confederate army died at his home in Canadian from an overdose of morphine. He moved here from Texas 12 years ago and engaged in the cotton business. He was at one time very wealthy.

AS A JUDICIAL FARCE

Former Secretary of State Caleb Powers Denounces His Trial.

ISSUES A STATEMENT TO THE PUBLIC

Says His Only Crime Was That He Stood For the Rights of the People—Incidents Attending the Verdict.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 20.—Caleb Powers, charged with being an accessory to the assassination of Governor William Goebel, was found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment. The jury was out only about 45 minutes. Powers almost fainted when the verdict was rendered. Betraying great nervousness, he said: "It is an unjust verdict." Only one ballot was taken. The jury which sat in the case was composed of eight Goebel Democrats, three anti-Goebel Democrats and one Republican. The latter said he reached his conclusion through the testimony of Powers himself. The defense will ask a new trial.

Powers issued a statement to the public, as follows: "That one of the greatest judicial farces known in history has been enacted here in my trial, under the forms of law, no well informed man can doubt. Innocence is no shield with $100,000 and the methods of Campbell against you. The rectitude of one's past life counts for naught. They say Taylor is guilty because he was at his office, and that I am guilty because I was away from mine. This has been a political trial throughout for political purposes, and no greater infarce has been made by the Democratic party since they robbed us of the offices to which we were fairly elected by the people. A great many Democrats will not endorse this mockery of a trial, this prostitution of the courts of justice for certain ends. From the beginning of the campaign until now, I have stood with what little of merit I have had, for the rights and liberties of the people. That is my crime. That is the only offense I have committed."

Yontsey's Trial.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 20.—The case of Henry Yontsey will be called today, but as the defendant has not fully recovered, it is not certain whether the case will go to trial. As much, if not more difficulty, is expected in securing a jury than in the Powers case, as nearly everybody in the county became disqualified by hearing evidence in the Powers trial. It is probable that Judge Cantrill will summon a venire from the adjoining counties.

Corn Crop Small.

Kansas City, Aug. 20.—Two-thirds of Kansas west of the easternmost tier of counties is experiencing one of the most severe droughts in the history of the state, and the general opinion is that the Kansas corn crop will be the smallest in proportion to its requirements for feeding that has been raised in many years. In 1899 it was 225,000,000 bushels. Secretary Coburn's report of the conditions on Aug. 4 indicated a yield this year of 145,000,000 bushels. Since then there have been two weeks of hot, dry weather, which has further materially reduced conditions.

Republican Campaign Book.

New York, Aug. 20.—The Republican campaign textbook has been completed and sample copies have arrived at national headquarters. The topics discussed in the book are national prosperity and its effect on the business elements, the manufacturers, the farmers and the workingmen, the currency question, the subject of trusts, conditions in Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines. The latter part of the book is devoted to a defense of the subject of so-called imperialism.

St. Louis Fair.

St. Louis, Aug. 20.—Plans for the resumption of work on the world's fair fund of $5,000,000, which has been so often and vexatiously interrupted, are under daily consideration by Chairman D. R. Franks and William H. Thompson of the two principal companies. Mr. Franks expects to sail for Paris about Sept. 15, and hopes to have things in such shape by that time that the fund will be practically complete.

Weaver's Tour.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 20.—General J. B. Weaver, the Iowa Populist leader, arrived here on his way to Kansas, where he will make several speeches in Mr. Bryan's behalf. He visited Mr. Bryan at the latter's residence and they discussed the campaign at length. General Weaver expressed himself as much encouraged regarding the outlook.

HUNTINGTON'S LAST ACT.

Financial Statement of Southern Pacific—Mexican Extension.

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—Probably the last important act of C. P. Huntington was to approve and issue for the information of stockholders of the Southern Pacific a statement of its earnings and dividends for the fiscal year ending June 30.

The gross earnings of the company for the fiscal year were the largest in the history of the corporation, being $63,268,408. This is an increase of $7,295,511 over the year before. Operating expenses aggregated $40,925,274, an increase of $4,855,260. Receipts in excess of operating expenses were $22,345,134, or an increase of $2,397,251 over last year.

Local officials of the company have been advised that Mr. Huntington's death will not delay the work on the extension of his Mexican International railroad west through Mexico from Durango to Mazatlan, an important port on the Pacific ocean.

Magnates in London.

London, Aug. 20.—There have been enough American electric railroad promoters at the Carlton this week to carry through any scheme for rapid transit in London which can be devised. T. L. Johnson of Brooklyn came from Paris Thursday and under the same roof were W. L. Elkins and P. A. Widener of Philadelphia and Edwin Johnson, representing the Edison company. They have been studying the Central Underground railroad. Mr. Elkins says that he and his associates have no definite plans for work in London, in spite of the fact that they have been in consultation with several of the city railroad owners.

Cubans Call at White House.

Washington, Aug. 20.—Among the president's callers were four prominent Cubans, who it is assumed discussed Cuban affairs with him. They were ex-President Cisneros of the old insurgent government, General Lacret, C. W. Currier, and Lieutenant Luis M. Ustiles. They were extremely reticent as to their talk with the president or as to their purpose in coming to Washington.

Wound Proved Fatal.

New York, Aug. 20.—Joseph Rabiner, who shot and killed his brother-in-law, Isaac Stein, and wounded his father and shot himself August 8 at Rockaway is dead. He had been suffering from consumption for a long time, but his death resulted directly from the bullet wound inflicted by himself. Jacob Rabiner has practically recovered from his wounds.

Population of New York.

Washington, Aug. 20.—The population of Greater New York, as indicated by the count just completed at the census office is 3,437,202. This includes the population of the boroughs of Manhattan and Bronx, previously accounted and those of Brooklyn, Richmond and Queens. An approximate estimate of the increase since 1900 shows it to be 37.9 per cent.

Weekly Bank Statement.

New York, Aug. 20.—The weekly bank statement shows the following changes: Surplus reserves, decreased $7,568,900; loans, increased $6,837,400; specie, decreased $8,106,900; legal tenders, decreased $234,900; deposits, increased $3,091,600; circulation increased $672,300. The banks now hold $20,557,050 in excess of the requirements of the 25 per cent rule.

Made Their Escape.

San Francisco, Aug. 20.—A letter from the Orient says Misses Genevieve and Minnie Ovlatt, two San Francisco women who went to China as missionaries and were located at Wu Hu have succeeded in making their escape to Japan. The letter also stated that Dr. and Mrs. Borland, who were stationed up the river 200 miles from Wu Hu, are safe in Nagasaki, Japan.

Burned a Bridge.

Eufala, I. T., Aug. 20.—The trestle bridge on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railroad across the South Canadian river, five miles south of here was set on fire and destroyed, apparently in an attempt to ditch the north bound train. The train was checked just in time to prevent going into the river.

Gone For Good.

Lima, O., Aug. 20.—J. Sheppard, yardmaster for Lima Northern, and Mrs. Isaac Smith eloped. They took along a quantity of baggage and it is thought they have gone for good. Sheppard left his wife destitute, drawing his deposits from a local building and loan company.

London, Aug. 20.—Lord Roberts reports that Colonel Hore, who was besieged at Elands river and has just been relieved by Lord Kitchener, lost 12 men killed and 58 wounded, including Lieutenant Colonel De Lisle.

BIG STRIKE IN SIGHT.

Anthracite Miners Claim to Have a Number of Grievances.

ASK THE OPERATORS TO CONFER.

Oppression Prevails That the Request Will Be Ignored by the Employers—Tranquile and Prevailing Prices.

Philadelphia, Aug. 20.—The anthracite coal trade has had a new topic of discussion for a few days past in the prospective labor troubles. The miners' convention at Hazleton has specified various grievances and has invited the operators and coal companies to a conference on the subject Aug. 27. The impression in the trade seems to be that the operators will not attend the conference. Hence there are inferences that a strike will result. The coal trade is very dull and something seems to be wanting to stimulate demand and confirm prices, and this may be the opportune method, but only a languid sort of interest is taken in the matter at present in coal circles.

The August output is expected to be about 4,000 tons, bringing up the year's tonnage to about 30,122,000 tons, an increase of 1,227,600 tons over 1899. There is some talk in the trade of another circular advance in price of 25 cents per ton for September, and, it is said, to stimulate orders at the July circular.

HOBS TO THE BOERS,

Text of His Recent Proclamation to the Sturdy Afrikan Patriots.

Pretoria, Aug. 20.—Lord Roberts' proclamation, after reciting the fact that many have broken the oath to maintain neutrality, and that the leniency extended to the burghers is not appreciated, warns all who break their oaths in the future that they will be punished by death, imprisonment or fine. He declares that all burghers in districts occupied by the British, except those who take the oath, will be regarded as prisoners of war and transported, and that buildings on farms where the enemy or his scouts are harbored will be liable to be razed.

Cuban Teachers' Farewell.

Washington, Aug. 20.—With cheers for Cuba the United States, President McKinley, and last, if not least, their hosts, the people of the District of Columbia, the 1,400 Cuban schoolteachers left the city over the Pennsylvania railroad for New York. After the greater portion of the week spent there and in Philadelphia, the entire party will embark on transports for Havana. The Cubans fraternally greeted General Cisneros, the former president of the island. Many threw their arms around his neck and covered his gray, bearded face with kisses.

String of Fatalities.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—Four drownings and one death by burning is Pittsburg's fatal accident record for the day. The dead: Chris Paffenbach, 50, fell from a raft in Allegheny river and was drowned; Edward G. Brillinger, 8, fell from a raft while fishing in the Allegheny river; James Gallagher and Hugh McGrady, boys, drowned together while swimming in the Monongahela; Mrs. Mary C. Boyd, wife of the assistant superintendent of the New York and Cleveland Coal company, at Oak Hill, burned to death by an oil explosion in her home.

Placed the Blame.

Paris, Aug. 20.—The board of inquiry which investigated the cause of the loss of the torpedo boat destroyer Framee, which was sunk in a collision with the battleship Brennus on the night of Aug. 11 during the maneuvers of the French squadron off Cape St. Vincent, officially reports that the disaster was due to a misunderstanding of an order on the part of the Framee's helmsman, who turned the destroyer in the direction opposite to the instructions of her commander.

Ireland Spoke.

Rome, Aug. 20.—Sunday being the feast of St. Joachim, the pope's patron saint, there was a large gathering at the vatican of cardinals, bishops and presidents of societies. The pope, who was in excellent health and spirits, spoke at some length regarding matters of Catholic interest, and then with a complimentary introduction invited Archbishop Ireland to address the assembly on matters in America. Ireland's address was well received.

Biddeford, Me., Aug. 20.—All departments of the Pepperell Manufacturing company's cotton mills in this city and the York cotton mills in Saco, shut down until September 4. The cause of the shut down is und BOURKE COCHRANE took the stump for McKinley in 1896 and did effective work for him. He is now for Bryan and Stevenson. Pat Collins, of Boston, who refused to support Bryan in 1896 will do all he can to elect him this year.

DR. H. Z. LEONARD, consul to Clifton Falls, Canada, under President Harrison, appeared at Indianapolis on Bryan day wearing a Bryan badge. "I am for Bryan, heart and soul," he said, "and shall do all in my power to aid in his election. McKinley has been a failure. He has no backbone and is completely under the domination of the trusts."

THREE CHICAGO GERMANS.

George Meyer, editor of the Frei Presse: "I believe that the majority of the German-American voters will vote for Bryan and Stevenson, not because they are for 16 to 1, but because they believe that imperialism and trusts are more important issues just now than the money question. You will find that Carl Schurz will come out for Bryan this year."

Christian Meyer, lawyer and member of the Chicago school board: "I think that a very large percentage of the German people see no harm in the silver plank of the Democratic platform and will support that party because of its stand against imperialism. My statement is based upon utterances I have heard from many people, including a number of Republicans."

Jacob Ingenthron, lawyer, civil war veteran and Chairman of an association of 340 German societies: "There will be a big landslide among the Germans toward Bryan. Anti-militarism and anti-expansion are the leading issues. The flirtations of our country with England during the past year have estranged the Germans from the Republican party. They do not like the attitude the government has assumed toward the Boers. The Germans believe that this country should help to maintain republics wherever they exist."

UNALTERABLY OPPOSED TO Mc-KINLEY.

United States Senator George L. Wellington, of Maryland, Republican, has made a formal statement of his attitude in the present campaign. He says:

I am unalterably opposed to the re-election of President McKinley. Bryan is a better man in every way than McKinley, and I regard his election as essential to the preservation of the Republic.

I regard the Philadelphia platform as a grave departure from the faith of our fathers. It is not the Republicanism of Lincoln, but an indifference of the inimical policies forced upon the country by McKinley.

I am an anti imperialist. I do not talk one way in Congress and another way on the outside, nor do I talk one way and act another. I am not like old Horatio to appeal to the past and the future, and then stultify myself. I see only the present. The past is gone and the future can care for itself; but I'll help take care of the present.

I am convinced there is a secret alliance with England beyond any doubt. You remember the cry that was raised against Cleveland of subserviency to England. There was not one-quarter the ground for it than there is for the same cry against McKinley. He would not dare do a thing that would be unacceptable to England, for he is nothing more than an English proconsul.

Bryan is absolutely right on the one great issue involved in this campaign, and with the money question at rest for four years, he is a bigger, a better and a safer man than McKinley. Even if the money question were not settled, Bryan is man of too much sense to undertake to tamper with the currency. Bryan is certain to be our next President, and I shall be glad to see him elected.

McKinley is to ally unfit for the office of President, because he is so weak and vacillating that he can't stick to an opinion over night. If he could know his own mind and be consistent for twenty-four hours at a time he might do, but such a thing is impossible with him, and for that reason he is unfit to be President.

Kentucky Republicans Sure.

(New York World.)

Senator Hanna left early in the afternoon for Elberton and missed seeing a delegation of Kentuckians who proposed to take him to task for having turned down Ex-Governor Bradly in some contests in their State. The friends of Mr. Bradly were harsh in their talk about Senator Hanna and said their State would go for Bryan.

POWERS GUILTY.

His Punishment Fixed at Imprisonment for Life.

Jury Out Less Than an Hour—Defense Will Appeal—Yontsey's Trial Comes Next.

After being out little less than an hour the jury in the Caleb Powers case on trial at Georgetown, at 2:28 Saturday afternoon returned a verdict of guilty and fixed his sentence at life imprisonment.

Powers was charged with being an accessory before the fact in the murder of Governor Goebel. The court room was packed when the verdict was received.

A special says: "As the jury retired one remarked: 'Those men will not be out long.' He spoke truly, for scarcely an hour had passed when Deputy R. S. Hearne sent for Judge Cantrell. He took his place on the bench and the jury filed in. They took their seats and the pale faces of several of them boded ill for the accused. Not one looked at the man whose fate they had decided. When the Judge asked if they had arrived at a verdict several nodded assent.

"I. G. Stone had been elected as foreman, and handed the verdict to the clerk, who read the fatal words. The condemned man paled slightly, but sat like a marble statue, apparently unmoved. His friends around him looked toward him with eyes brimming with pity. He seemed unconscious of it and looked steadily at the twelve men who had found him guilty.

"A moment later he turned to those friends near him with a smile and was soon busy shaking hands, talked of his appeal. On the other side of the room Arthur Goebel was busily engaged in writing telegrams to his brother, Justus, and the other relatives of the deceased man. The spectators filed quietly out of the room, many of them waited down stairs to grasp the hands of the jurymen. The wives of most of the jurors were waiting to take their husbands home.

"Powers was taken back to jail, where he will be held, awaiting action on his appeal.

"Following the Powers verdict, it is sure that Yontsey's attorneys will do everything within their power to prevent his case going to trial."

The Yontsey case was set for trial today, but he has been ill, and it may have to be postponed.

The BULLETIN was the first to announce the news of the Powers sentence in this city. A special giving the jury's verdict was received at 3:30 p. m. Saturday.

BOOMS BRYAN.

Labouchere Applauds the Democratic Candidate for President.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Henry Labouchere says in his paper, Truth, to-day: "Were I an American, I would vote for Mr. Bryan in the coming election. I do not believe in bimetallism, but regard it as a pious opinion having nothing to do with present politics. Bryan's crusade against trusts means that he objects to plutocrats ruling the country in their own interest. His opposition to the entering on a scramble for outside territory is merely the doctrine which, until a few years ago, was held by every American. It is this doctrine which has made the United States so prosperous."

Can Withdraw Bid in Case of Error.

A very important decision was given recently by the Supreme Court of the United States in a case where a mistake had been made in an estimate. The charter of the City of Rochester, N. Y., provides that no bidder for public work shall have the right to withdraw or cancel his bid before the contract is awarded. The Moffet-Hodgins & Clarke Company submitted a bid for the construction of water works; but, after the bid was handed in, discovered that an error had been made in filling out the blanks, so that its bid was about sixty-four thousand dollars less than it had intended.

As the charter precluded the direct withdrawal of the bid, the company appealed to the United States Court, which granted a decree, declaring the bid to be rescinded. The case was carried to the United States Court of Appeals, which reversed the decision, and was then appealed to the Supreme Court, which has now unanimously affirmed the original decision.

A HANDSOME automobile belonging to a well-known Eastern medical concern was the attraction at Wells & Biggers' livery stable this morning. THE trial in which Harry Vaughn, the ex-catcher of the Cincinnati Reds, was the prosecuting witness against his brother-in-law, John McCracken, came to a close Friday at Augusta. Vaughn, who lives in Covington, and whose wife has left him, went to the house of Mrs. McCracken, near Rocksprings, where his wife is staying, and tried to take his child away. In the altercation that followed John McCracken, the brother-in-law, drove Vaughn from the house with a shotgun. Vaughn in turn had the brother-in-law arrested, and the trial was bitterly fought. Mrs. Vaughn was in the court room, and dramatically related her domestic troubles. The jury found that Mr. McCracken was justified in using the measure he did.

PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

(By Robert Taylor.)

Mr. Yerkes will have to jerk his voice to a great height to drown the sullen sound of infamy and crime, of dishonor and conspiracy, of murder and assassination that comes from the Georgetown court house.

With their late leader a fugitive from justice and assassination a cardinal tenet, the Republicans go into the canvass for the Governorship pretty well handicapped.

Republicans worked hard for a continuance of their ease in the matter of the Goebel assassination, so that their canvass for the Governorship and the promised unpleasant developments should not have to run parallel, but they reckoned without the host.

The Republican party, on trial for assassination, and a canvass of the State for the Governorship at the same time, doesn't jingle well at all for the gentlemen concerned therewith, and this is what causes them to fret and fume to such an extent.

It's to be hoped the Republicans won't nurse their hatred of Mr. Bryan to the extent they did their hatred of Governor Goebel, else they may awake some morning to find blood upon their bands and souls again.

If the men who voted for Taylor last fall had skunked like he is doing, he wouldn't have to be skunking now.

With the Republican press all over the State indulging in the most incendiary talk and some of the papers in effect advocating the assassination of Mr. Goebel; with the State building filled with armed men, breathing threatening and slaughter, they now seek in every way to throw the responsibility for the most dastardly crime of the times off the shoulders of themselves individually and the party collectively.

AFTER MANY YEARS.

James Sullivan, Whose Real Name is Said to be Daniel Ryan, Will Have to Answer For a Serious Crime.

James Sullivan, whose real name is said to be Daniel Ryan, was placed under arrest Saturday night and will be held to await the arrival of officers from Ohio, who are expected to reach Maysville some time to-day.

It will be remembered that Sullivan, who runs a saloon at the corner of Front and Market, was supposed several weeks ago to have lost his mind and the court sent for Mrs. Redden, who Sullivan said was his sister. When she arrived she found it to be true that Sullivan was her brother. She stated that he had killed a man named Severs eleven years ago at Georgeville, near Columbus, and had not been heard of since by any member of the family.

Sullivan—or Ryan's—name is also associated with a killing that occurred when he was only nine years of age. About thirty years ago neighbors were shocked to hear one morning that "Old Paddy" was killed. The old fellow had been shot through the abdomen with a shotgun and it was proven that no one was in the house at the time but young Daniel, who is now called Sullivan, and his father. The boy claimed the old man shot himself while fooling with the gun, and that he had helped him in bed and then went to sleep himself. The case was dropped owing to the youth of the boy.

Years afterwards, Ryan, with a brother-in-law, opened a saloon at Georgeville. They were there a year, when one night Ryan and Severs got into some kind of a scuffle and Ryan killed him. He left that night and nothing was heard of him until he sent for his sister, thus making himself known, and she in turn telling of his trouble at that point. It was for this crime that he was arrested and for which he is being held for the Ohio authorities.

PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

A Lad Painfully Injured By Striking His Foot Against a Lead Pencil.

Master Willie Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Clark, met with a rather peculiar accident Saturday. While running on Plum street, a lead pencil dropped from a pocket in his shirt and struck the pavement just as the foot was brought forward, which struck the point of the pencil with such force that it penetrated the member about three inches. Mr. John Buckley, who happened to be nearby, removed the boy to his store where the pencil was extracted and the injury dressed.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, druggists.
